From Little Things, written and directed by Heidi Schiller, is an original, one-act play about growing up and finding love in and around Fairfield in the mid-1950s. This heart-warming, slice-of-life play is based on the true story of Pete and Alberta Groh; how they met, what tore them apart, and the little things that brought them back together for a lifetime of happiness. Life-long residents of the area will enjoy the nostalgia of Saturday football games, Junior Tea Dances and LeSourdsville rides and games.

Cast locally, the role of Pete Groh will be played by Christian Sansone and the role of Alberta Groh will be played by her granddaughter, Mary Kathryn Groh.
