Franz Klaber Orchestra

An evening of big band favorites!

FAIRFIELD, OH – The Franz Klaber Orchestra (also known as the Klaberheads) delivers an evening of Big Band Era favorites at the Fairfield Community Arts Center Saturday, Jan. 28 at 8 p.m. as part of the One Stage Series. Tickets are $18 for adults and $15 for seniors or students.

Playing favorites like “In the Mood,” “It Don’t Mean a Thing (If It Ain’t Got that Swing),” and “Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy,” as well as ballads such as “Moonlight Serenade,” tangos, foxtrots, waltzes, they bring fun and enjoyment to all ages.

Call the FCAC Box Office at 513-867-5348 or purchase online at www.fairfield-city.org/tickets. This show is sponsored by Edoc Services, Inc. and funded in part by a grant from the Ohio Arts Council.

Started by Franz Klaber Sr. in 1930, you are probably used to finding the Klaberheads at your nearest Oktoberfest. The rest of the year, the band takes on a completely different musical appearance and make up.

The Klaberheads perform at all types of venues including conventions, summer concert series, and dances. From crowd participation numbers to the horn driven tunes of Chicago and Michael Buble, from Big Band to rock ’n roll, the Klaberheads are accomplished musical entertainers that bring a high-energy connection to the audience.
