

Follow us on

Thursday, Sept. 25, 2014 | 8:45 a.m.

Subscribe | Today's paper | Customer care

Sign In | Register

Posted: 1:46 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2014

Butler County retail job fair Thursday

By Chelsey Levingston

FAIRFIELD — Just in time before the holiday season, Butler County's job center plans to hold a job fair Thursday, Sept. 25, with local, hiring retailers.

Thursday's job fair is from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at OhioMeansJobs — Butler County, located at 4631 Dixie Hwy. (Ohio 4), in Fairfield. Employers that plan to participate include J.C. Penney, Best Buy, Kohl's, SanMar Corp., Hayneedle, Walmart, Target, Big Lots, VXI Global Solutions and Staffmark, according to the county-run job center.

The event is open to any job seeker looking for full-time, part-time or seasonal employment in the region's retail industry. All skill levels are welcome and available jobs range from entry-level to management, according to OhioMeansJobs — Butler. Interviews will be conducted on-site for select positions, so job center managers advise applicants to dress for success and bring multiple copies of their resumes.

For more information, Call OhioMeansJobs — Butler at 513-785-6500.

Retail experts are expecting a boost in seasonal hiring this year. Read more about that here.

Read about job opportunities every Sunday in the Journal-News under "Find a job with Journal-News."

More News

- 4 injured in vehicle-school bus crash near Camden \(journal-news.com - News\)
- Surprising Facts About Millennials in the Workplace \(Bentley University\)
- Fire destroys vacant garage in Camden \(journal-news.com - News\)
- New charges for man charged in Hamilton attempted abduction \(journal-news.com - News\)

Recommended by